

Banning anything from a pay for program service is a gross violation of the 1st ammendment.
The censorship campaign that the FCC has entered into for regular broadcast radio is equally unacceptable from 1st ammendment grounds.

If Thomas Jefferson was alive now, he would listen to Howard Stern.

D. Day